Dear Sir:

Contract documents and specifications have been prepared for 10-619-11 Analytical Services for In-Service and Procured Lubricants at Various Locations, at the request of the Maintenance and Operations Department.

The purpose of this contract is to procure services to test lubricant properties sampled from in-service equipment to determine the conditions of the lubricant and the equipment and also to test samples of freshly procured lubricants to verify compliance to specifications for an approximately three-year period.

The estimated cost for this contract is $134,800.00. The estimated 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2013 expenditures are $12,301.83, $44,814.13, $44,814.13, and $32,869.91 respectively.

The bid deposit for this contract is $6,700.00.

The contract specifications require that all work commence after receipt of the purchase order and terminate three years thereafter. Liquidated damages, in the amounts up to $10.00 per day, may be assessed whenever the contractor breaches the specified time limits for providing analysis reports.

The Multi-Project Labor Agreement (MPLA) was not included in this contract because the classification of work does not fall within the provisions of the MPLA.

Revised Appendix D will not be included in this contract because of the specialized nature of the work.

The tentative schedule for this contract is as follows:
